

Jack Dani & The New Standards truly transports audiences back in time. They specialize in taking all your favorite songs from the last 20+ years and recreating them as swanky jazzy hits or your favorite 1920's decadent Gatsby sound.

Band leader Dani Armstrong is best known for her work with Postmodern Jukebox, over 30 million views of her singing videos on the internet, and an extensive career in the music industry for the last 20 years. Dani created the character "Jack Dani" who fronts The New Standards. A croonin', boppin', ragtime gal of the 1920's 1930's and the 1940's, "Jack Dani" is played by some of the industry's top female singers.
